

David Hoffman

Year of Call: 1997

David specialises in business and property work across the Northern Circuit. He is regularly listed in the Legal 500 and Chamber & Partners Legal Directories with testimonials including: 'David has excellent knowledge of the law and he is very practical. He is good with clients, reliable, and delivers good results.' (2025), "works extremely efficiently and gets to the problem very quickly, and he is a good sounding board too.' (2024) and "exceptional understanding of the law ....approachable, flexible and helpful." (2023).

He undertakes a broad range of business and property work. He is also experienced working as a junior to KCs and as part of a team on larger or more complex matters (including with juniors). Practice areas include:

Business / chancery and commercial

David acts in all types of contract litigation including sale of goods and services, domestic construction, professional negligence of lawyers, accountants and other professionals, insurance and banking contracts. This has recently included business interruption insurance arising out of the pandemic. He has also acted for clients in company and partnership disputes, including obtaining and defending urgent injunctions, and commercial wrongs such as passing off and breach of confidence, breach of fiduciary duty and breach of trust. He is especially strong in cases of legal complexity, including areas such as restitution, breach of fiduciary duty and complex corporate and trust matters. He is also skilled at mobilising clients quickly to bring or defend urgent injunction applications.

Clients include acting for firms of solicitors in disputed fee cases and partnership issues, acting for a large biotech company in a confidential arbitration (led by Clive Freedman QC), local authorities including Manchester City Council, large companies including British Nuclear Fuels, and a variety of corporate and private clients.

Recent cases include breach of confidence, commercial contract disputes, partnership cases, professional negligence, commercial fraud, recovery of care home fees, supply of telecoms services, shareholder disputes fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, personal guarantees, liens, assignments, franchises, and commercial arbitration.

Contract drafting

David also undertakes drafting commercial contracts including standard terms of business, substantial and bespoke property contracts, shareholders agreements and other corporate documentation, leases, conveyances and property contracts. Drafting standard terms of business has included advising on provisions required to comply with consumer protection and similar legislation, in some cases dealing with challenges from trading standards.

Property

David acts in a variety of property cases, including land and conveyancing disputes such as registration, rights of way and boundaries; landlord and tenant cases, residential and commercial; insolvency; and equity and trusts, including co-ownership. He appears in the Chancery Division of the High Court, the County Court and the First-Tier Property Tribunal.

Recent cases include acting for a zoo which was repossessed by its landlord and obtaining an urgent injunction, commercial companies and partnerships, agricultural landowners and partnerships, private clients with neighbour disputes, families with succession disputes, co-owners with property disputes, such as boundary disputes and rights of way.

Succession

David can advise on a wide range of succession matters, including regularly advising on Inheritance Act cases and family provision, wills and probate, capacity, undue influence and issues arising with estate property. As well as litigation, David frequently acts to help parties to settle disputes at mediation and has acted as arbitrator in estate matters.

Alternative Dispute Resolution

David is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators and has acted as an arbitrator, as well as published on arbitration law. Recent arbitrations include landlord and tenant, commercial contracts and estate and will issues. David is also an accredited mediator (Centre for Effective Dispute Resolution) and a member of the Association of Northern Mediators. He is an experienced advocate in both mediation and arbitration with a strong record of settling cases. Both for mediation and arbitration, David welcomes creative approaches to ADR, including paper-only arbitration, and conducting ADR at fixed rates for modest-value claims.

David is also accredited to take public access clients.
