Tanya accepted a tenancy at 18 St John Street Chambers upon successful completion of her pupillage in 2024.

Tanya accepts instructions in a wide range of criminal cases including drugs matters, violent offences and fraud. Tanya is a Level 2 Crown Prosecutor.

Tanya regularly appears in Crown Courts across the North West, both prosecuting and defending. She prides herself on her thorough approach to her cases and ability to form effective relationships with clients.

Tanya accepts instructions in the Crown Court, Youth Court and Magistrates' Court.

Prior to starting Pupillage, Tanya worked as an Assessment Analyst at the Independent Office for Police Conduct, an organisation responsible for handling complaints against police forces in England and Wales. Here she developed an understanding of the police and criminal legal systems as well as reviewing evidence in police misconduct cases.

Tanya has also volunteered at the Citizen's Advice Service, Manchester Free Legal Help Clinic, and Manchester University's Legal Advice Centre. Here she developed skills including client care, drafting and providing legal advice.'
